Etched Glass
Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. Monument

Elevation Looking East

King Chapel

As you jog or walk along the Tidal Basin, you pass by a curved, granite wall etched with a silhouette of James Karales' rivetting photograph depicting the 1965 Selma to Montgomery march. Walk up the pathway and you'll enter the intimate amphitheater where Martin Luther King, Jr. stands life size, beckoning you to stand with him, and share his vision and journey toward peace and love.
