

Detail 1 - Monument Tubular Support

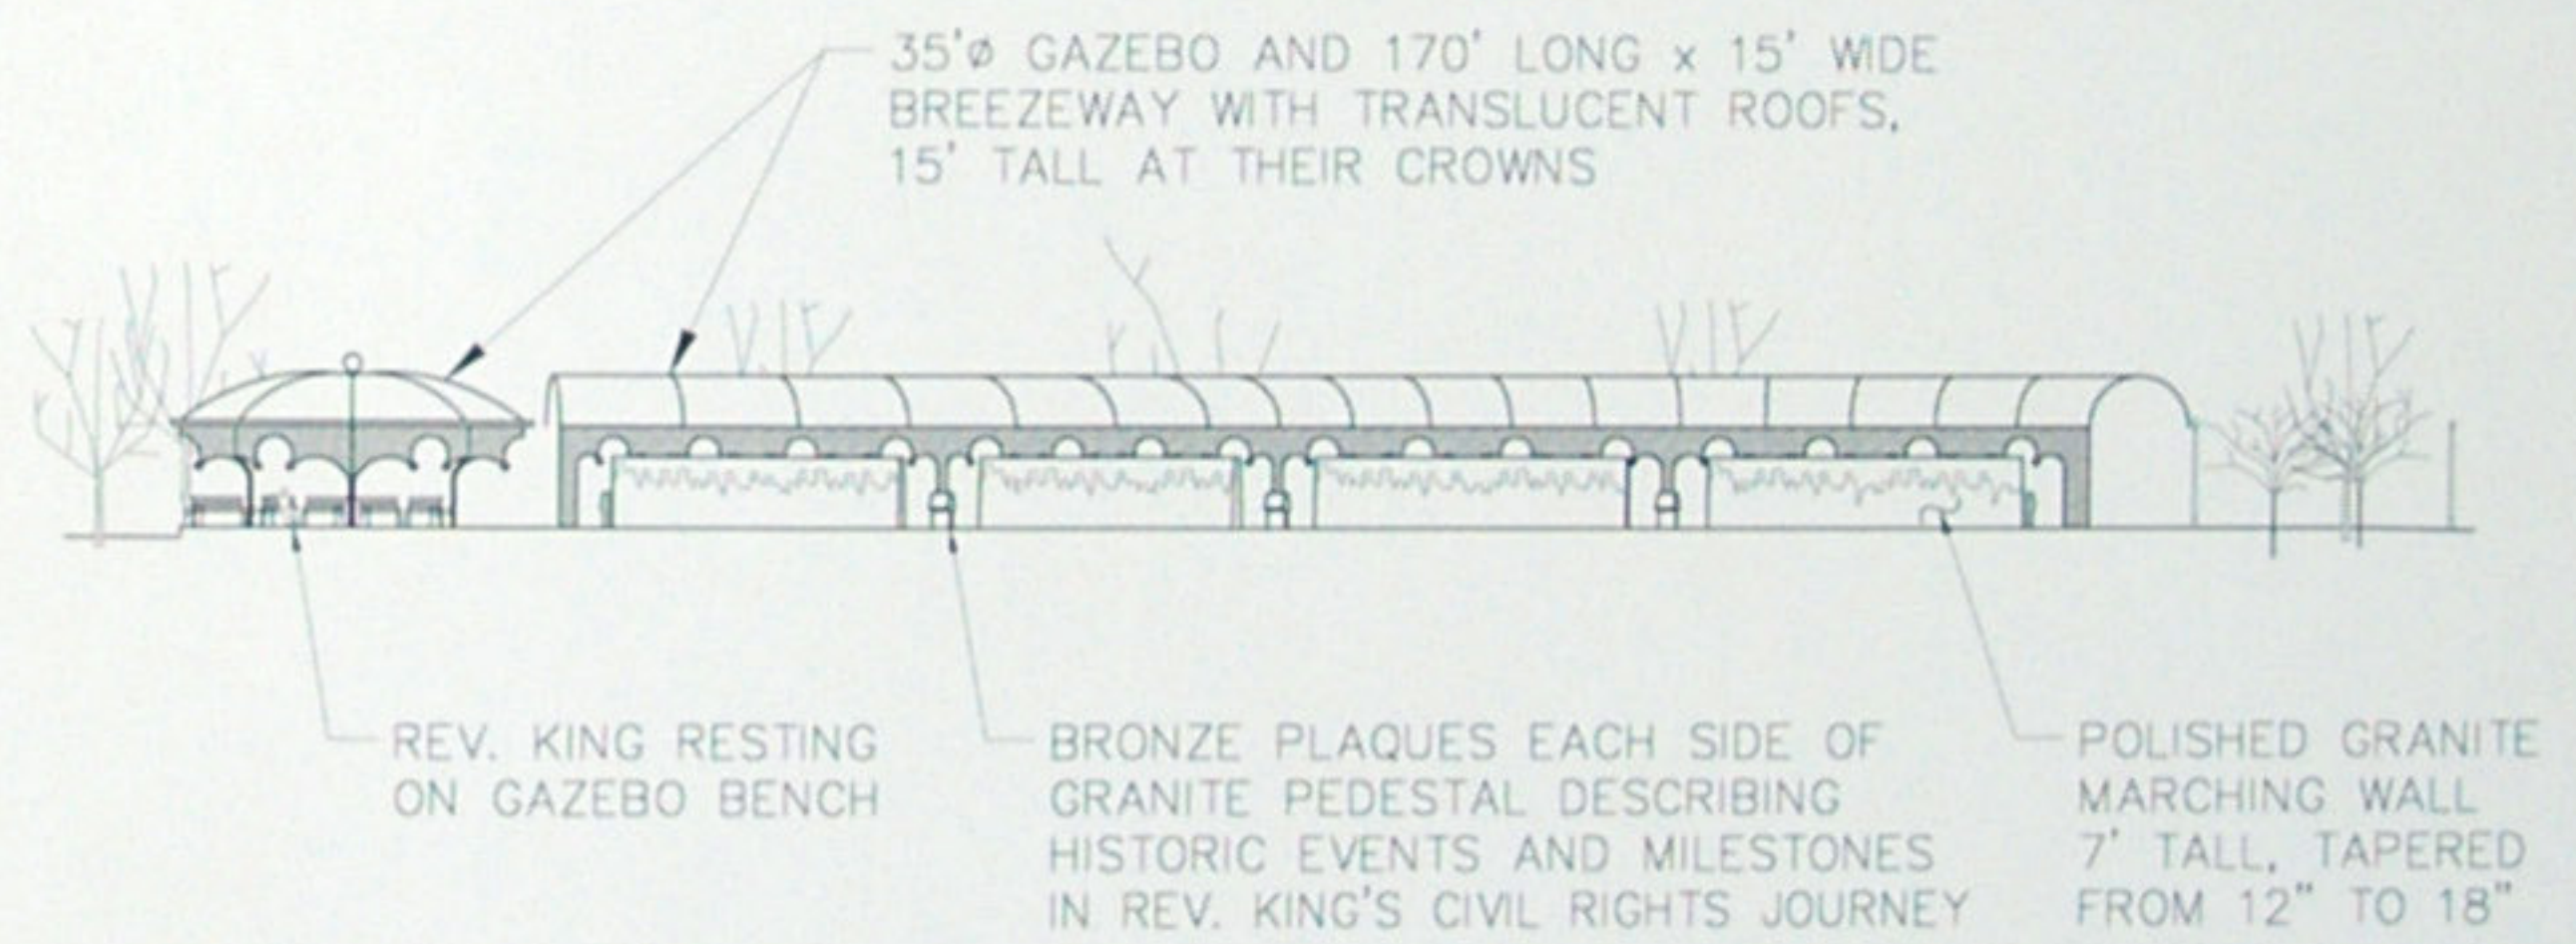

Detail 2 - Lunation Memorial Benches

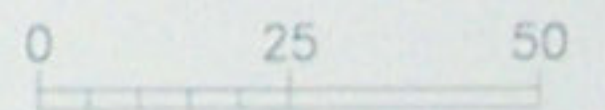

King Chapel

Relaxing in the Gazebo

Elevation of Marching Wall

Marching Wall

g the plaques commemorating e toward freedom and equality, astonishment and delight)
sting on a gazebo bench, visionary, march.

As you enter the northeast portal of the Marching Wall breezeway, you encounter a plaque briefly outlining the pivotal moments in the American Civil Rights Movement. The journey along the sculpted granite walls introduces you to those people who were the Civil Rights Movement, who walked before and with and after Martin. These quotations, chiseled in stone, are from the souls of those who dared march toward freedom.

